Student Art Exhibit

The annual exhibit of artwork by artists of area high schools will be on display at Arts on Grand from March 3rd through April 4th. Submissions by artists may include sculpture, painting, drawing, printmaking, photography, ceramics, and graphic design. Arts on Grand is also pleased to showcase a special mural project by Spencer middle school students. This year, the show will be judged by the Arts on Grand jury committee member and local glass-blowing artist, Jesse Bogenrief, and several prizes, including Best of Show, will be awarded. Arts on Grand encourages the public to attend the artist reception on Thursday, March 5, from 5 to 7 pm and vote for their favorite work of art. The artwork with the most votes will receive the much coveted “People’s Choice” award. The winner of which will be announced at the end of the reception.

That’s not all—we believe that art should be fun and engaging for everyone of all ages! Along with the exhibit there will be several kinetic drawing machines and drawing robots, made with the help of Torrey Proctor, Spencer’s very own K-5 STEM teacher. We are happy to set up visit times with area schools that wish to bring students in to view the exhibit and play with the drawing machines and bots.

Please join us for the artist reception on Thursday, March 5, from 5 to 7 pm. Teen approved snacks and beverages will be served. Come and support the work of our up-and-coming artists! The reception is open and free to the public. This year’s exhibit is generously sponsored by Farmers Bank.
