Backyard Bach & Blues: A Reprise!

It was a wonderful summer evening and all the stars were aligned to create a great Backyard Bach and Blues event at the home of Rolf and Valerie Mosbo on August 13th...Two hundred guests were entertained by the classical stylings of Stephen Baker and the "good old rock and roll" sounds of John Senn and friends. Some folks even took the patio floor for a few dance numbers. The pork hog wings provided by the pork producers of Clay County and cooked by Smoke Daddies (Sam Harper) were delicious and were complemented by cheesy hash brown potatoes, calico beans, watermelon salad, crisp veggies...chips and salsa prepared by AOG board members. Katie's cupcakes: peach cobbler and Mississippi mud chocolate and rum chocolate bourbon pecan cake pops provided a sweet end to the meal.

Arts on Grand is thankful for the BBB attendees and for the sponsors which include Community Bank ; Doll Distributing; Clay County Pork Producers; DermUs Skin Care; Winther, Stave & Co.; Denison Drywall; Spencer Office Supply; Cotton-Grave Farm Management; Graham Tire; Edward Jones-Jeremy Eller; Re/Max of Spencer; and Emmetsburg Veterinary Clinic. Thanks again to Rolf & Valerie Mosbo for hosting. Thanks to AOG board members for their contributions and hard work.

Join us at the Art Barn!

September in NW Iowa means Clay Co Fair and for Arts on Grand it means Art Barn. We welcome everyone to come out to the fair, paint a square for this year's mural, visit with the artists demonstrating their work, and purchase some one of a kind artwork for yourself or someone you love.

Music In The Gallery!

Music in the gallery in October! Arts on Grand is happy to present songs with George Ingebretsen on October 6th and brass works with Tom Rutt and friends on October 25th.
